Notice to Assisted Persons

This Notice Is Required by Section 527(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code

If you file a bankruptcy case:

1. All information that you are required to provide with your bankruptcy petition and throughout your bankruptcy case is required to be complete, accurate and truthful.

2. All of your assets and liabilities are required to be completely and accurately disclosed in the documents filed to commence the case, and the "replacement value" (as defined in Section 506 of the Bankruptcy Code) of assets, if applicable, must be stated in those documents where requested after reasonable inquiry to establish such value.

3. You will be required to state, after a reasonable inquiry, your "current monthly income," amounts specified in Section 707(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, which generally concern certain of your expenses, and, if your case is being filed under Chapter 13, your "disposable income," which is determined under Section 707(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. Information that you provide during your bankruptcy case may be audited and your failure to provide such information may result in dismissal of your bankruptcy case or other sanction, including a criminal sanction.

I/we have read and understand the foregoing and understand that only attorneys can give legal advice regarding my/our compliance with the duties stated in the foregoing.
